Dear Sirs:

Having been asked to dispose of some Early American coins, I am writing to ask whether you can tell me the name of a thoroughly reliable dealer in Philadelphia.

If you do not know any in Philadelphia, will you recommend one in New York?

Gratefully yours,

Dear Mrs. Dam:

One of the best dealers of coins
in this country is Mr. Henry Chapman, 333 South Sixteenth Street, Philadelphia, Penna.

Very truly yours,

My dear Mr. Wood:

Thank you so much for your letter. We did know Mr. Chapman, but he died last winter. Could you recommend anyone else?

I am very sorry to bother you again, but would greatly appreciate your further advice.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Dam:

The Mr. Chapman you have reference to was Mr. S. H. Chapman, a brother of the one we gave you the address of. As you state, Mr. S. H. Chapman died last winter, but Mr. Henry Chapman is still alive.

Very truly yours,
